

The Clinical Lactation Manuscript Checklist

Before you submit your article, please make sure you have done the following:

- ✓ Does your article have an abstract?
- ✓ Does your article have keywords?
- ✓ Have you included your references in the text (or are they merely added at the end of the article with on in-text references)?
- ✓ Are all the references there? And do they match the references in the article?
- ✓ Are your references in APA style? If not, please refer to the hand out on our website.
- ✓ If you are including quotations, did you provide the page number in the text?
- ✓ Is the article 3,000 words or less?
- ✓ Does your article have figures or photos? All of these need to be submitted in separate jpg files.
- ✓ Please include a picture and 1-2 line bio about yourself and any co-authors.
