

Violence and Victims* Guidelines for Authors

Violence and Victims is a peer-reviewed journal of theory, research, policy, and clinical practice in the area of interpersonal violence and victimization. The journal seeks to facilitate the exchange of information on this subject across such professional disciplines as psychology, sociology, criminology, law, medicine, nursing, psychiatry, and social work. Special emphasis is given to the reporting of original empirical research on violence-related victimization within and outside of the family, the etiology and perpetration of violent behavior, health care research related to interpersonal violence and to trauma, legal issues, and implications for clinical and community interventions. Development and validation of new assessment and treatment methods are also given high priority. Violence and Victims is published six times annually.

The following are guidelines for developing and submitting a manuscript. Manuscripts that do not conform to these guidelines will be returned to the author without review.

1. Authors should submit the manuscripts professionally prepared in accordance with the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edition, 2009. Instrument(s) may be included in an appendix, to be published at the discretion of the editors.
2. An abstract of approximately 125 words should be included. Authors should also supply a list of four to six words, not appearing in the title, which will be used for indexing.
3. Data based manuscripts are generally expected to be no longer than about 25 pages in total length with final papers having no more than 18 to 20 pages of primary text. Up to date, critical, and scholarly review papers on specific topic areas (e.g., comprehensive theoretical models, assessment or measurement issues and technologies, treatment/intervention design and outcomes, international perspectives on a problem area) and/or otherwise justifiably longer papers will also be peer-reviewed and considered for publication.
4. Double-space everything, including references, quotations, tables, and figures.
5. All figures must be submitted in camera-ready form. In addition, photos and line art figures should be sent as a tiff (300 ppi) or eps files.
6. Quotations of 300 words or more from one source require written permission from the copyright holder for reproduction. Adaptation of tables and figures also require reproduction approval from the copyrighted source. It is the author's responsibility to secure such permission, and a copy of the publisher's written permission must be provided to the journal editors immediately upon acceptance of the manuscript for publication.
7. Manuscripts should be submitted at the journal's ScholarOne submission and review tracking website.
